

Erik C. Acosta

Practice Areas: Toxic Tort

Bar Admission: New Jersey, 2001
District of New Jersey, 2001
New York, 2004

Education: J.D., Rutgers School of Law – Newark, 2001
B.S., Seton Hall University, 1994

Biographical Information: Erik C. Acosta is an associate with Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer P.A. concentrating his practice in the area of toxic torts. Upon graduating from Rutgers School of Law, Mr. Acosta served as a law clerk for the Honorable Edward Beglin, A.J.S.C. (ret.) for the 2001 term.

Mr. Acosta presently serves as the Legal Advisor for the Hispanic Law Enforcement Society of Essex County and is a board member of the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Essex County. He is also a member of the American Bar Association, the New Jersey Hispanic National Bar Association, and the New Jersey State Bar Association.

Direct Telephone: 732-855-6054

Direct Fax: 732-726-4712

Email: eacosta@wilentz.com